CITY MATTERS.

Martin Huber is the proud father of seven sons, the youngest arriving last night.

Mr. Lou Shaw and wife will probably give exhibitions of fancy billiard and pool playing in one of the opera boxes next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Halford have returned from Interlachen, Florida, in a fair degree of health. They are to remain here during the summer.

The family of Mr. Shager, on South Taylor street, have had a severe case of scarlet fever. Four of his children have been down with the dread disease. They are on a fair road to recovery now.

The Cincinnati Evening Telegram, of Thursday says:

Capt. A. S. Bushnell, of Springfield, was in the city last evening. He is the man who set up the scheme that beat Columbus out of the next Republican Convention. Bushnell is a hustler when at home, but when he is away from home, it is hard to tell what he is until he gets ready to leave. He is not popular with the hotel keepers at Columbus.

At Wednesday's session of the annual convention of the Ohio Congregational Association, at Mansfield, R. W. H. Warren, of this city, read the report on the Oberlin Theological Seminary. It stated that the annual examination of the students had shown efficient instruction and careful attention on the part of the students. A continuance of the aid heretofore extended to the seminary was heartily recommended.

Station House.

About six o'clock last night the patrol wagon was called to the extreme west end of town to take charge of one Theodore Harris, who was drunk and extremely out of order. Harris endeavored to entice a twelve-year-old girl named Davis into the woods. He was probably too drunk to know just what he was doing.

James Row was run in by Officer Bam for drunkenness.

James Wilson, a burly negro who lives on the corner of Western avenue and Pleasant street, entered a neighboring house, and drawing a revolver, amused himself by chasing the women folk up and down stairs. We have great curiosity to know his reasons for chasing this kind of fun, but as he was called out of the station-house last night, we could not learn them this morning. Officer Condon arrested him.

Clark County Medical Society.

The May meeting of the Clark County Medical Society, held in the west county building, being the annual meeting, was largely attended and considerable interest was shown in the election of the following officers: Dr. J. M. Buckingham, president; Dr. J. G. Kuman, first vice president; Dr. J. W. Morrison, second vice president; Dr. Henry Baldwin, secretary; Dr. J. W. Nelson, treasurer; J. A. D. Rogers, Dr. Dugan, Drs. Rogers, Hall and Carroll.

The board of censors reported favorably on the application of Dr. H. C. Dimond, and he was duly elected to membership.

The following members were elected delegates to the State Medical Society: Drs. Seys, Nelson and Buckingham.

A motion that a member be appointed to procure a dead-bird list from the several members, such list to be the property of the society for reference, was carried. On motion of Dr. Rogers it was decided to hold the next meeting of the society in the evening at eight o'clock.

The president after appointing Dr. Dimond to read a paper at the next meeting, adjourned the meeting.

The Shelby Detention.

An account was published by the city papers one day this week of the arrest here, by an officer from Shelby, Ohio, of one W. A. Walton, a plumber, his wife and six children, the man on charge of seducing a young girl named Luella Moyer, at Shelby. Yesterday's Mansfield News has a long and sensational account of the affair, painting Walton in the blackest characters and showing the woman to be but little less culpable than he. Both were arraigned before the Mayor of Shelby on arrival there and were bound over to court in the sum of $500 each, being committed to jail at Mansfield in default of bail. The six children were taken to a hotel, where their mother was allowed to pass the first night with them, they being removed next morning to the county infirmary and the mother returned to jail. The youngest child, an infant in arms, was born during the short time the family lived in Springfield. The charge is, in substance, that the said W. A. Walton and wife did wilfully decoy and entice the only daughter of Mr. Moyer, whose name is Luella, to their residence, and seduce her with the purpose of making of her a common prostitute. Mrs. Walton is charged with being a party to the crime and standing idly by and allowing her husband to ruin the girl. Luella Moyer is 17 years old, but remarkably well developed for her age. She has always borne a good reputation and was popular in society. Her father is a prominent business man of Shelby, a clothier, and lived next door to the Waltons, with whom his daughter seemed to become intimately acquainted, spending a great deal of time with them, and often accompanying them to church. It was on these trips, it is said, they poisoned her mind preparatory to carrying out the alleged scheme of ruin and prostitution. Last Sunday night Luella was detected throwing some clothing from a window, preparatory, it is to be proven, to flight with Walton on an evening train. Thus thwarted Miss Moyer made full confession, with the result seen. The account says the Waltons had a house nearly ready to occupy here. The letters, of which mention has been made and which alone, it is said, are sufficient to convict, are in Mrs. Walton's handwriting and no doubt dictated by her husband. He denies everything except having intercourse with the girl and doesn't openly admit that. His wife refuses to talk at all.

REPORTS OF CONVENTION COMMITTEES.

Matters Presented Favorably—Liberal Subscriptions—Building to be Finished June 1—Accommodations Secured for 5,000 People—Decorations, Furniture, Etc.

The members of the various committees which were appointed last week were notified to meet last night at Room 6 of the Arcade, and report progress. The attendance at the meeting was by no means so full as could be desired, several committees being entirely unrepresented. The reports from those which were present, however, were quite satisfactory.

The first report was by the Building Committee, O. S. Kelly chairman. The lumber has been contracted for at the rate of $12.87 per 1,000 feet, and will be here Monday, if not sooner. Mr. Kelly estimates that it will require some 75,000 feet of lumber and that, when finished, the building will cost not far from $1,700. Two of the members of this committee are practical carpenters and one of these, Mr. Harvey Arbogast, has been made Superintendent of Construction, while the architect, Mr. Penfield, will see that the building is erected in accordance with the plans made for it. It will be finished by June 1st.

The report from the Finance Committee indicates that the citizens are determined that Springfield shall do herself honor on this occasion. The professional men of the town subscribed most generously of their hard-earned "shillings" while the manufacturers and business men, so far as they have been approached have been by no means backward. The hotel men have not yet subscribed but have been written on the question of donating something to the good cause. All these men who have not yet been asked will be interviewed at once and Mr. Bushnell hopes to be able to report at the next meeting that the financial question is settled.

Mr. Keller, of the Committee on Invitations, stated that he did not know just what was expected of his committee. It did not seem right to him to begin sending invitations to distinguished Republicans of Ohio, as it is their business to attend without such invitations. He had been thinking that it would be a good plan to invite a number of the "shining lights" of the party from other States. This suggestion was favorably received by all present, and it was then discussed whether persons so invited came as guests of the city or at their own expense. The sentiment of everybody was that they ought to be treated as guests of the city. Mr. Keller thought the city could stand the expense, as, in his opinion, the convention would not be a lengthy one. It will be further discussed at the next meeting.

The Committee on Halls and Committee Rooms then reported, through Mr. O. F. Service, that they had found twenty-three available rooms which they thought could be obtained if wanted. The rooms are as follows: On the first floor of Court House there are the Court room, Library, Witness and Judges' rooms; on the next floor, Clerk's room, Court room, Jury room, Grand and Petit Jury rooms, Agricultural Surveyors', Probate Court and County Commissioners' rooms. Outside of the court house and the Mayor's office, Police headquarters and Mayor's court; Caledonian hall, Kelly's office, Martin and Weaver's office, G. A. R. Hall, (perhaps), and rooms from Frank Rightmyer, and the room formerly occupied by Yakey and Bowers. (perhaps). It was stated, also, that the Lagoda House billiard room would be available for such purposes. After considerable discussion it was determined to get as many of the rooms as possible in the Arcade and immediate neighborhood. The two opera houses were also spoken of but will not be used unless absolutely necessary. The four committees of this Convention can all be accommodated in the Arcade.

J. S. Miles, of Committee on Furniture and Decorations, reported that it would be impossible to get the requisite number of chairs in Springfield. He goes to Cincinnati to see if he cannot rent enough unpainted chairs from the factories at that place. He may stop at Dayton with the same object in view. Such straight back, wooden chairs can undoubtedly be rented at small cost. In decorating, a large quantity of evergreens and oak leaves will be used. Probably the contract for decorating will be let to some Cincinnati firm who make a business of it and keep supplies on hand. Letters have been received from two or three such firms already. In the matter of outdoor decoration, it is the intention to get the written promise of the merchants and business men on the principal streets to put out all the flags they can get their hands on. In the hall will be hung pictures of all the Republican Presidents from the time of Fremont (who ought to have been) down to that of Blaine, who is in the same boat with Fremont. The pictures of all the Whig and Republican Governors of Ohio will also shed the light of their benign countenances upon the multitude of their followers. It is proposed to borrow the pictures of the Ohio dignitaries from the Ohio Exhibit of the New Orleans Exposition.

The Committee on Entertainment reported through E. M. Campbell that the hotels would be able to accommodate, without going outside their own walls, over 1,500 people. This will be done by means of cots placed in the rooms formerly occupied by the two business colleges, which the hotel men have rented for the purpose. Rooms can be obtained for 1,000 more in private boarding houses and among the citizens who will donate a room for a night or two. Those who lodge in such rooms will take their meals at the hotels, whose proprietors confidently claim that they can feed the whole earth, and more if necessary. The hotels will all charge their ordinary rates. It was suggested that hotel-keepers be requested to have the food standing on the tables and not depend entirely on waiters. It was thought that, by this plan, a great saving of time could be effected. As to locating the delegates, each delegation will be assigned its quarters before arriving here. If members of any delegation are, for any reason, dissatisfied with their assignment they will say so as soon as possible, through the chairman, and a change will be effected. As to the hotel proprietors, they are working in favor of this plan and make no arrangements with any delegations without first informing the Entertainment Committee. In this manner the various delegations can be smoothly and easily located.

After all these reports were in suggestions were made on a number of points, such as appointing persons to look after the various committees' rooms, etc. James Foley spoke of the necessity of having enough doorkeepers and a competent police force to keep the crowd away from the doors, protect the doorkeepers and sit down upon the irrepressible small boy.

The question of tickets of admission was brought up but no action taken. The members of the committee adjourned until Monday night, when regular nights for meeting will be named.

KNIGHTLY DEVOTIONS.

Accession Day Ceremonies Under Palestine Commandery's Auspices—An Elegant Reception in the Evening.

The march of Palestine Commandery No. 33 Knights Templar, to attend divine services at St. Paul church, yesterday, the afternoon of Accession Day, has been already described. On arrival about 2:40 p. m. at the handsome main audience room was found fully occupied by ladies and other friends of the Order of Templar Knights, excepting the block of seats in the center and directly in front of the altar, which were reserved for the uniformed worshipers. Messrs. J. L. Zimmerman, Augustus N. Summers, Bert. H. Taylor and Robert Mills acted as ushers at the church. The standard and banner of the Commandery, borne in the ranks on the parade, were advanced to the front and the Knights, having saluted Grand and Commandery officers as they passed to their positions, were themselves seated. In the pulpit were Grand Chaplain L. P. Van Cleave, Sir Knight Rev. H. Tucker, D. D., pastor of the church; Sir Rev. John T. Rose, chaplain of the Commandery, and Sir Rev. Frank G. Mitchell, of Urbana. Within the altar was Past E. G. C. Sir C. C. Kiefer, Past E. G. C. Sir Frank Vance, of Urbana, and E. G. C. Sir Harvey Van Vleet, of Palestine. In the front seats were Past Emulants and Officers of the Commandery, with E. G. C. Sir Chas. E. Jamieson, of Raper Commandery, Urbana.

The entire space upon and about the pulpit was crowded in every available space with borders and pyramids of rare, gorgeous and fragrant floral treasures of the conservation, kindly loaned by Mrs. P. M. Mast. The choir, in rear of the pulpit, was spanned by a wide arch showing the words: "Christ is Risen." In letters of fire. Above a crown and below a cross, formed in the same manner. As the Knights advanced in the order named below, the excellent quartette—Miss Druce Heiskell, soprano; Miss Alice Voss, contralto; Mr. B. M. Burbank, bass; Mr. O. C. Kiefer, tenor—sang the inspiring hymn: "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The column was as follows:

1. Standard Bearer.
2. Sir Knights.
3. Officers.
4. The Patriarchs.
5. The Eminent Commander and Council.
6. The Officers of the Grand Commandery.

After all were seated the choir sang an anthem to organ accompaniment by Mr. N. Seever, and then the Knights, kneeling, said the Lord's Prayer. Responsive readings from the Psalms followed, the choir chanting the Gloria Patri and Gloria in Excelsis. Grand Chaplain Van Cleave read the first lesson from I Kings, 1st, 1st to 12th, and the choir chanted Psalm 121. Sir F. G. Mitchell read the second lesson from St. Luke, 24th. The Knights joined in recital of the Apostle's Creed and reading of prayer of intercession, led by Chaplain Rose. The opening service concluded with hymn, "The Rising God Forakes the Tomb," sung to Old Hundred.

The discourse was delivered by Rev. Dr. Tucker from the text James 1, verse 27, and seldom, by the comment among those directly addressed, has any discourse on a similar occasion made a deeper impression or one more likely to be followed by practical results. The question discussed was, "What is true religion?" and at the outset the hearer's mind was disabused by arguments drawn from the inspired word, as was done throughout, of the false notion that the leading of a moral life was sufficient, and that by joining a religious order or even the church a man necessarily became religious. His religion must be within himself and not of the surface. It must combine works with faith; the giving of charity where nothing can be expected in return; the visiting of the sick, the widow and fatherless. Neither are we, as people of one belief do, to withdraw from the world, but we must so live in it as to benefit those about us and according to the precepts of purity laid down for us. After the sermon Miss Heiskell sang: "I know that my Redeemer liveth," the most perfect quiet prevailing, and the benediction having been pronounced, lines were formed for the return march to the asylum, which was by Yellow Springs, High, Limestone and Main streets.

The numerous apartments in the Masonic Temple were ablaze with light and early filled by a brilliant throng for the social reception by the Commandery in the evening, the ladies being in evening costume and the Sir Knights in uniform. The very efficient and watchful committee of arrangements was present to receive all comers and extend Palestine's hospitality with all grace and cordiality. Among the honored guests of the evening was Sir Knight Gen. R. P. Kennedy, of Bellefontaine, who was accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy, guests during their stay in the city of Sir Wm. M. and Mrs. Black. There were 250 ladies and gentlemen present, the company being called to order at 8:30 p. m. by Sir Harry B. Hendley, chairman of the committee, who introduced E. G. C. Sir H. Vinal. That gentleman delivered, on behalf of Palestine Commandery, a hearty welcome to its guests, adding some word of commendation of the principles of the Order. The company was then favored with a piano solo, skillfully performed by Miss Marie Miller, daughter of Sir J. M. Miller, M. D. Coming next upon the programme and giving great delight, as that lady's singing always does, was a contralto solo: "Song of the Sea Shell," by Miss Alice Voss, accompanied by Miss Lois Voss. A soprano solo by Miss Anna Miller was an agreeable surprise to those who were not favored in previous opportunity of hearing Miss Anna's well trained voice in song. An intermission for refreshments was down on the programme at this point, but a brief delay being necessary the lights were turned out and a part of the exhibition of dissolving views by means of a large stereopticon, under the direction of Sir Samuel Harford was given. The process on then formed and ascended to the banquet hall where were spread 40 tables the entire length of the hall, decorated with lovely flowers and plants furnished without charge by the skillful and popular florist, Mr. P. H. Murphy, of the Urbana road. At each table was a pretty boutonniere, with each boutonniere for invited guests and officers, provided by Mrs. W. M. Black. The menu was about the same as on former occasions of this kind. Everything was very nice and palatable and in quantity sufficient for twice the number of guests. Following the feast of substantial and deli-

Farmers are now shipping their fat sheep. John Smith, James Hodge, and others have sold off some fine bunches.

"A Quarter of a Cup of Tea." "Yes, madam," said the Dine. "Just a quarter of a cup of tea, if you please, and half a slice of toast. That is all I can eat before preaching this evening, for my dyspepsia is so bad." The poor man preached an awfully dry sermon, which put his hearers to sleep. But why should a minister have dyspepsia as long as Brown's Bitters is to be had at the drug stores? The Rev. Brown, of Newbern, N. C., says, "I consider Brown's Bitters one of the best medicines known."

NORTH HAMPTON.

Mr. Huffman thinks it isn't so funny after all to be taken by surprise. Last Friday evening her friends and neighbors came in and took possession of the house. One of her remarks was, "I haven't only three pieces and some bread baked." We didn't need them, because a table was loaded with well-filled baskets. The band favored us with music, after which supper was passed. Suffice it to say, everyone seemed pleased.

Mr. D. W. Blagg met with a painful accident last week. Their horse struck her in the face with its head and broke one tooth off and loosened others.

Our band boys are going to give an entertainment next Saturday evening at the school house. The drama selected is "Ten Nights in a Barroom." It will be played by the same persons, with a few exceptions, that made it a success several years ago.

Mr. Sam Jordan has bought a lot of Mr. Samuel Overpeck and a house of the Merandans, and is going to move it on the lot.

The surprise on Mrs. Moses Sutton last Tuesday evening was a success in the broadest sense of the term.

Mr. Simon Hawke lost a valuable horse Sunday night. Too much grass the cause.

In the State Department at Washington there is said to exist a disposition to gradually train experts for professional diplomats, and that three young men are now in this line of training and study.

LOCAL NOTICES.

J. S. Mace, of Chillicothe, Ohio, writes the following: "This is to certify that I suffered for one year with severe chronic rheumatism. After trying remedies suggested by most every one without receiving any benefit, I was induced to try Mielher's Herb Bitters. After using it a short time I found myself greatly benefited and eventually cured." Mielher's Bitters is infallible in kidney and urinary affections.

Excellent cure of a Marvellous Cure in England.—The newspapers of Great Britain are filled with accounts of the wonderful recovery of a young man who had been so ill with asthma and rheumatism that he was not able to lie down in bed for nine long years. This cure was due to the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. They say that this like nearly all others, was the result of indigestion, and that the Shaker Extract of Route (Sieg's Syrup) effected this wonderful cure by restoring the digestive organs to a healthy condition, obviating entirely those disagreeable results of sick headache, biliousness, &c. The Shakers say that this is the only way in perfecting this remedy for Dyspepsia, and that its effect upon the digestive organs is something wonderful. For diseases of the throat or lungs they recommend the Shaker Tar Coughs.
